

Reel Action Fly Fishing Cancellation Policy

Due to the nature of the fly fishing guiding business, weather can play a major factor in fishing conditions. Please realize that we have a limited season. For us to operate at a high level of quality we must uphold a firm and fair cancellation policy.

Payment of a deposit equal to one half of the full price of the trip is required at the time of reservation to lock in you or your parties dates.

Should you or your party cancel within one month (30 days) you will have the option of a full refund. If you cancel within two weeks (14 days) before the date of the scheduled trip you will have the option of moving your deposit to another date. If you decide to cancel individual members of your party, there will be no refund.

If we cancel your trip due to weather or stream conditions or other valid reasons, Reel Action Fly Fishing will reschedule the trip and move your deposit at no charge, subject to availability. We will not give refunds due to cancellations made because of weather conditions, only transfers of the deposit.
